

Science + Religion

A CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVES LECTURE SERIES

You're invited to Borromeo Seminary for a scholarly discussion series that explores the relationship between science and religion. Light fare and conversation to follow the lectures. Complimentary admission and no registration required.

SEPTEMBER 9, 7PM

"Of Two Minds: A Neuroscientist Balances Science and Faith"

William Newsome, Ph.D., Stanford University

OCTOBER 8, 7PM

"The Historicity of Adam and Eve in Light of Evolution"

Rev. Nicanor Austriaco, O.P., Ph.D., Providence College

Looking for more information? Call Professor Beth A. Rath, Ph.D. 440-943-7576

Borromeo Seminary is a college formation program in the Diocese of Cleveland. It is located at the Center for Pastoral Leadership in Wickliffe, Ohio. borromeoseminary.org 28700 Euclid Ave. Wickliffe, Ohio 44092