

Prayer for AM 1260 The Rock

St. Peter, you are the Shepherd of the sheep, the Prince of the Apostles, the Rock. Intercede for WCCR, AM 1260 The Rock, that we may faithfully proclaim the Word, Jesus Christ, and serve His Church that He appointed you to protect. We place AM 1260 The Rock under your patronage, that we may do all for His honor and glory. Amen.

Transmitting the Faith! New Transmitter Now in Operation

While everyone has been adjusting to wearing masks, Zoom meetings, and “social distancing,” AM 1260 The Rock has been busy working on the air and behind the scenes to maintain and improve Catholic radio in Cleveland.

On Wednesday, June 24th, we accepted delivery of the long-awaited new Nautel NX10 Transmitter. We had literally inch(es) to clear the door, and without our Audio Engineer Tracey Liston, assisted by Mark Krieger and Leo Burkardt, I am not sure we would have figured out the exact angle that made it all work. No doubt many prayers also helped.

After several weeks of work including engineering and electrical, we switched over our broadcast to the new equipment. We are keeping the old transmitter as a backup to the new one.

Planning for the more than $50,000 project began over a year ago when the current transmitter was showing signs of stress. According to our Audio Engineer, Tracey Liston, the new transmitter will provide “a more reliable

AM 1260 The Rock Marks 5th Anniversary!

May 11th marked The Rock’s 5th anniversary of bringing ‘rock solid truth’ to the airwaves of Northeast Ohio. We would have liked to celebrate in person with you. But our celebration is in your stories of conversion, of return to the faith, in the ‘aha’ moment you experience listening to one of our many programs, or in the peaceful prayer of the evening rosary.

Many thanks to our founding board members: Leo Burkardt, Pat D’Andrea, Bill Messerly, Jerry Monroe, Keith Robilotta, Dick Russ, Bill Wendell, and Tom Wenzel.

May God bless you for your dedication and commitment to bringing Catholic radio to Cleveland.

Notes from the Director

"So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus; but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, 'Lord, save me.' Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, 'O man of little faith, why did you doubt?'" Mt. 14: 28

I am so glad that the patron of this apostolate is St. Peter. He is as imperfect as they come, yet Jesus chose him from among the twelve to be the Rock upon which His Church would be built.

Why did Peter fall? He took his eyes off Jesus. He saw the wind and was afraid. He focused on what was happening rather than on the One in whom was his hope and his refuge.

These past few months have allowed us all to experience the wind and be afraid, but keeping our eyes on Jesus, we, too, can weather the storm.

When the Covid-19 outbreak began in mid-March, the staff and board of AM 1260 The Rock kept our focus on what mattered most: providing our listeners with consistent, reliable Catholic teaching and programming to sustain them through what were going to be weeks of isolation, unavailability of sacraments, and a lack of community. AM 1260 The Rock became that community, offering Mass and devotionals throughout the day and catechesis, apologetics, news and discussion to help us make sense of what was happening.

Working remotely, our staff remained undeterred in serving our listeners, some who found us during the pandemic for the first time, many of whom are not Catholic but found something worth listening to. Together we got through the Triduum and Easter.

We returned to the studio on May 4th and have continued to focus on what our listeners need. For those who remain apprehensive or unable to attend Mass in person, we continue to offer additional opportunities to help you participate in the life of the Church and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

But it isn't just our staff and board who remain focused. So are you.

Despite the financial setbacks and uncertainties that have accompanied this pandemic, you, our listeners, continue to support us with your gifts. We survive on the widows mite, and we know that many of you give from your want rather than from your surplus. You, too, are focused on Jesus throughout this storm.

Not only did you help us surpass our adjusted goal for our postponed pledge drive, you responded generously to our request for funding for our new transmitter, which, by the grace of God, cleared the doorway and is now operating (see page 1 story). If you recall in the last newsletter, I mentioned we were taking a page from Mother Angelica's playbook. She often didn't know where the money was coming from but went forward with what needed to be done. She trusted in Divine Providence and was not disappointed. Neither were we.

As of this writing, we still see the wind; schools are trying to find ways to open, small businesses are struggling to survive, and we continue to live with restrictions that affect not only our daily routines, but our celebration of the Sacraments and the practice of our faith. Together, we must continue to keep our eye on Jesus. We at The Rock are undeterred in our mission "to provide quality Catholic programming that is faithful to the teachings of the Church and inspires a deepening of faith and conversion of heart." With your continued support, Our Lord will use this apostolate to build up the local body of Christ.

Sincerely,

Bernadette Boguski
Executive Director

Spiritual Warfare

Adapted from a homily offered at Spiritual Warfare Holy Hour on July 9, 2020.

At the beginning of July, during the celebration of our First Friday evening Mass, I stood at the altar leading the congregants in the prayers of the Holy Mass. This was the evening before Independence Day. During Mass, there were numerous fireworks and bottle rockets going off. At one point, I had a brief glimpse of myself as a military chaplain celebrating Holy Mass on the back of a jeep with the troops gathered behind me and the sounds of battle echoing in the air. It's an apt vision for today's faithful Catholics who must be ready every day to go in spiritual battle.

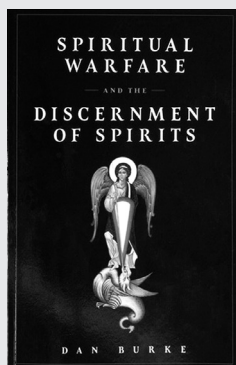

We have the weapons of prayer and the assistance of God that can help us through any threatening situation or time. We do not need a permit for prayer, nor do we need anything more than the Holy Rosary. However, just like any conflict, we must also prepare ourselves for it. I find the programming on AM 1260 The Rock to be good preparation for the challenges of today. Spiritual warfare does not depend upon how "fit" you are or your physical condition. It is dependent upon our devotion and love for Christ, and the willingness to surrender our will to His Holy Will.

Dan Burke, the former Director of EWTN News, recently wrote a book called Spiritual Warfare and the Discernment of Spirits. In a chapter called "How to Strengthen Yourself Against Spiritual Attack," Burke uses the example of Saint Ignatius of Loyola who said that evil often conducts itself like a "military leader" seeking to take a fort or a hill or an occupation. We can see the analogy as a fortress around our soul.

Burke wrote: "The enemy pitches his camp to prepare for the assault on you. He watches you day and night without rest, for he needs no rest. He learns your sins, your weaknesses, your proclivities, and your inclinations. With respect to the structure of the fortress around your soul, and the gates of entry, these are the virtues, or lack thereof in your life. He sends scout demons out to test each gate. They push on them to see if they are strong or weak. If they are weak, the demons take note."

Burke sums up the tactics of the evil one in this way: "The enemy's greatest success will usually be through the gate of your dominant fault or root sin. Your root sin is that one sin that you will wrestle with for the entirety of your life and will manifest itself in various ways." Thus, to strengthen ourselves against the attack of evil – and we cannot lead others in battle unless we are first battle-ready ourselves – so we must know and be prepared for temptation of our root sin. That is imperative in combating evil. Listen to AM 1260 The Rock to aid yourself with the prayers and devotions needed to ensure your success in protecting your soul.

Letter from a Listener

We received many letters from listeners throughout the last few months, further reminders of the importance of Catholic radio.

"Hello in Christ,

Well, I'm not Catholic...in a sense, but am born again.

I was awake the other night and switched on your station. I listened to a priest talk and I have to say he was anointed. One of the slogans he uttered was, "You find your real self, when you get lost in God." Wonderful statement.

Next I listened to Johnnette Williams and what a gracious wise Christian woman she is. I haven't heard her for a few years but she impressed me the same way then.

Also, a few years ago when I had cable TV I listened to Dr. Scott Hahn, and I was very enriched by his presentation.

While I'm off, I will be checking in more to AM 1260 The Rock. I definitely feel the truth, peace, hope and strength of Christ through the programs I've heard."

Prayer for Our New Bishop

God, eternal shepherd, you tend your Church in many ways and rule us with love. You have chosen your servant, Most Reverend Edward Malesic, Bishop of Greensburg, to be the shepherd of your flock in the Diocese of Cleveland. Give him a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care, may he build your Church as a sign of salvation for the world.

What was your home parish?

I was baptized by Fr. Farrell at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in Emmett, Michigan where I grew up. My parish now is Saint Brendan the Navigator in North Olmsted.

Who is your favorite saint and why?

I love Our Lady, she is my all-time favorite! As far as saints, I love St. Therese the Little Flower. Both Our Blessed Mother and St. Therese have helped me so much in my life! I also love St. Jude, St. Francis Xavier, St. Joseph, St. Pio, and Blessed Father Solanus Casey (all wonderful friends as well).

What is the last good book you read/are reading?

I'm reading What Alice Forgot by Liane Moriarty.

What do you do on your day off?

I love to spend time with my husband, Will, and our daughter, Mary Kate. We like to walk, ride bikes, travel and play with our dog, Buddy.

What's something we don't know about you?

I'm all Irish: Grace, Keough, Kinney and Foley.

What is your favorite devotion?

I love the Mass and receiving our Lord in the Eucharist. I try to go daily when I can.

What is your favorite season and why?

I love spring because I was born in May.

Who is your favorite superhero?

I would have to say Spiderman.

What three words best describe you?

Friendly, Funny, Fun

What career would you choose if you could?

I've always wanted to write.

If you could have lunch with Jesus today, what would you want to talk about?

I would tell Him how much I love Him and thank Him for giving me my faith, family, and friends.

With which Apostle or Saint to you most closely identify and why?

I think Saint Peter because he was very human and kind of goofy, but he really loved Christ.

An Interesting Way to Wrap Up My First Year

I have seen it all in my 20 years of radio. Been caught in snowstorms, met celebrities, and covered breaking news stories with a tape recorder (for those who remember what they look like), but nothing compares to what I have seen this year. Who would have thought in 2020 we needed perfect vision to refocus our attention on what really matters and why it is important to keep that spiritual connection with God.

Covid-19 has really changed our lives. For all the bad things that are going on, I am happy that now more than ever radio has answered the critics who have questioned its longevity. Through it all I am happy that Catholic radio is playing its part in the resurgence of the medium.

For many during these times of confinement, "The Rock" has been their only way of participating in the Mass. I think when God tests us, (like we are being tested now), it brings out the best in people. While working remotely, we never missed a beat, making sure that during Holy Week we remained on the air. With the power of the internet, Debbie Georgianni did the entire "Spirit Drive" from her home in Arizona, and because of the generosity of our listeners we were able to reach our adjusted goals. It was your support that kept us going and made us realize the value of what we do.

I think the thing I missed most were our volunteers. We get used to seeing them every day, and when they are not here, we miss them. At least they are starting to come back during our "new normal," but a phone call is not the same as seeing a trusted friend day-to-day. Thankfully, our volunteers kept in touch. Even though we cannot see your entire face under those masks, we know you are smiling back at us. I wanted you to know while you prayed for us, we prayed for you as well and your safety. This truly does become a family and it is nice to have our reunions each day at work.

The truth is we do not know what lies ahead, but I am confident that we are in this together. Here is hoping that you find the radio a trusted friend during these difficult times. The other day a listener called up and needed just to talk for about 30 minutes. He did most of the talking and I did most of the listening. While it is not listed in my job description it helps to know that bringing comfort really is a part of this life ministry. Covid-19 has not slowed us down at "The Rock" and now we are back on stride. God Bless! Tim Boulware
