Praying the Novena to St. Joseph

REFLECT

Day One – Pillar of Families

St. Joseph, you are the pillar of families. When someone is called a “pillar” it means that they are reliable and supportive, much like a pillar that holds up a building. You helped raise Jesus in difficult situations, taking him to unknown places, yet also showing love to him and his mother. Help us look to your example. Pray for our family today and always. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Day Two – Spouse of Mary and Foster-Father of Jesus

St. Joseph, you were the earthly father of Jesus and Mary’s husband, and you faithfully carried out your duties to them, helping them be who God called them to be. Some people only think about themselves, but you put Mary and Jesus first and cared for their needs before your own. This can be difficult in a family. Help us to be more like you and think of the needs of others before our own. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Day Three – Mirror of Patience

St. Joseph, you are the mirror of patience. You did not instantly know all the details of God’s plan for you and your family, but you patiently waited for him to reveal them to you. We find ourselves waiting at times too - for our turn, a package to arrive, a special date on the calendar, test results, or knowing God’s plan in our lives - but you model for us how to be patient in that. It can feel as if our patience is tested, sometimes regularly, by other family members, co-workers, friends, or those with whom we interact. Help us to be patient with one another. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Day Four – Comfort of the Afflicted

St. Joseph, you are the comfort of the afflicted. You comforted Mary and Jesus in times of sorrow and fear. You supported them emotionally and spiritually. These are days when our family needs this kind of support too. Comfort us in times of anxiety and stress and help us to be compassionate and comforting to each other when things get tough. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Day Five – Most Just

St. Joseph, you are most just. To be “just” means to be fair and to make the right decisions. You opened yourself up totally to God. You were a man of honesty, integrity, and virtue - a righteous man - treating others with dignity, love, and respect. We know that does not come naturally; it comes from a commitment to do what is right. Help us desire and do what is right in God’s eyes. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Day Six – Most Courageous

St. Joseph, you are most courageous. We hear examples in Scripture of times you showed courage and did what was right and needed. Courage, sometimes referred to as fortitude, helps us overcome obstacles as well as fears. It can be bold and obvious; at other times it is a quiet calm that propels us forward. People have lots of different fear: fear of the dark, fear of getting sick, fear of rejection, fear of measuring up to others, etc., but God does not want us to be afraid. St. Joseph, help us to face our fears with courage. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Faithful St. Joseph, we entrust our family into your fatherly care. Help our family to be a beacon of faith in our neighborhood, workplaces, schools, parish, and world. Today, we ask that you pray for our family:

- That we may grow closer to Jesus and one another.
 - That we may have trust in God's plan, especially when times are tough.
 - That we each may be more courageous.
 - That we may courageously be witnesses to Jesus Christ in our words as well as our deeds.
 - (Name any specific intentions your family may have at this time.)
- St. Joseph, Most Courageous, pray for us. Amen.

Day Seven – Most Obedient

St. Joseph, you are most obedient. You had a plan for what your life would look like as a carpenter, husband, and father, yet, you followed God's commands, which most likely looked different than what you imagined. We can struggle with obedience to those within our family or those outside of it, but God puts people in our lives to guide us and keep us safe. Obedience is not a loss of freedom but a way to demonstrate our love to God and to those who guide us. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Faithful St. Joseph, we entrust our family into your fatherly care. Help our family to be a beacon of faith in our neighborhood, workplaces, schools, parish, and world. Today, we ask that you pray for our family:

 - That we may have trust in God's plan, especially when times are tough.
 - That we may grow in obedience and trust of God, especially when we face obstacles.
 - (Name any specific intentions your family may have at this time.)
- St. Joseph, Most Obedient, pray for us. Amen.

Day Eight – Most Faithful

St. Joseph, you are most faithful. This faith was shown through your total trust in God. You had faith that God was directing you to take Mary as your wife and to care for the child, Jesus. You had faith that Jesus was God, even though he looked like an ordinary child. You had faith in God when Jesus was in danger and you had to flee to Egypt. You had faith that God would help you provide for and protect your family. Pray that our family can have the same kind of faith that you did. (Pray Novena Prayers)

Faithful St. Joseph, we entrust our family into your fatherly care. Help our family to be a beacon of faith in our neighborhood, workplaces, schools, parish, and world. Today, we ask that you pray for our family:

 - That we may have faith like you and that we can cherish it as a valuable gift.
 - (Name any specific intentions your family may have at this time.)
- St. Joseph, Most Faithful, pray for us. Amen.

Day Nine – Glory of the Domestic Church

St. Joseph, you are the glory of domestic life. You are the example of how to establish a household that is centered on God. You lived the daily rhythm of family life as part of the Holy Family. You know how the everyday opportunities of sharing, forgiving, laughing together and listening are all opportunities to grow in holiness. Grace transforms the natural into the supernatural. These grace-filled moments are how the domestic Church makes disciples. (Pray Novena Prayers)
